

Please reject the NAB's attempt to impede the great progress being accomplished by satellite radio. If the ancient rules actually do prevent what XM is doing, then please change them. This kind of protectionism is contrary to the innovative spirit of America.